

Recessed plaster downlight - GU10 - trimless

Ref. B250

Aro trimless recessed downlight made of white plaster with a diameter of Ø133mm for GU10 LED bulbs. Designed for installation in walls or ceilings to avoid glare. Ideal for installation in hallways, shops, stores, offices, and at home. Reference:B250

Product data

|                       |                                      |
|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|
| Cap                   | GU10                                 |
| Certs                 | CE, ROHS                             |
| Dimensions (mm) LxWxH | Ø130x45                              |
| Frequency (Hz)        | 50-60Hz                              |
| Frequency of Use      | Intensive                            |
| Guarantee             | According to legal warranty: 3 years |
| IP                    | IP20                                 |
| Material              | Gypsum                               |
| Assembly              | Recessed                             |
| Weight (g)            | 599                                  |
| Temperature range     | -20°F ~ +40°F                        |
| Sensor                | No                                   |
| Nominal Voltage (V)   | 220-240V/AC                          |
| Outdoor Use           | No                                   |

Product variants

Reference

Attributes

B250

