

WILLOW" wicker pendant lamp

Our "Willow" lamp is a handcrafted piece with a bell-shaped design, large in size, woven from naturally strong and durable wicker fibers. Its open framework widely diffuses light, enhancing the textures of the material, while its frayed finish gives it a fresh and warm, casual appearance. It features three options for the canopy and cable (white, black, and natural rope) so you can choose the one that best matches your environment. Accepts E27 bulb (not included)
